PRELIMINARY INSTRUCTIONS

Please read the following instructions carefully before completing any portion of this questionnaire. Please print your juror number in the space provided at the top of each page. Do not write your name on the questionnaire. Please answer each and every question fully. Some questions have more than one part.

YOU ARE SWORN TO GIVE TRUE AND COMPLETE ANSWERS TO ALL QUESTIONS IN THIS QUESTIONNAIRE. This questionnaire is designed to help simplify and shorten the jury selection process. The purpose of the questionnaire is to determine whether prospective jurors can decide this case impartially based upon the evidence presented at trial and the legal instructions given by the presiding judge. The questions are not intended to inquire unnecessarily into personal matters. Although some of the questions may appear to be of a personal nature, please understand that the Court and the parties must learn enough information about each juror's background and experiences to select a fair and impartial jury.

Please answer all questions to the best of your ability. If you do not know the answer to a question, then write, "I don't know." There are no "right" or "wrong" answers, only truthful answers. If you have strong feelings about this case in general, please do not hesitate to share them. Although you may be a perfectly good juror in another case, this may or may not be the right case for you to sit as an impartial juror. Both parties have the right to get honest answers and to hear your true opinions. Remember, you are sworn to give true and complete answers to all questions.

DO NOT DISCUSS YOUR QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS OR THE CASE WITH ANYONE NOW OR UNTIL FURTHER INSTRUCTED BY THE COURT. You should not discuss the questions or answers with fellow jurors. It is very important that your answers be your own individual answers. More broadly, do not discuss the case with anyone, including the lawyers (except in the presence of the Court), your fellow jurors, your family, your friends, or anyone else. Do not communicate about the case in any way, including telephone, e-mail, any social media app or website (such as Facebook), and communications app or website (such as X). You must also avoid reading or hearing about the case (or anyone participating in the case) in newspapers, in magazines, on the radio or television, on social media, or on the Internet.

DO NOT DO YOUR OWN RESEARCH ON THE CASE. Do not conduct any research into the case (or anyone participating in the case) at any time before your entire jury service has been completed. That includes performing Internet or social media searches, asking other people about the case, reading news stories, books, or reports about the case, or watching films, television, or streaming programs that relate to the case. Do not read, watch, or listen to any information about this case.

Your name will not be disclosed or connected to this questionnaire beyond the Judge and the parties in this case. If you wish to discuss an answer to this questionnaire in person and privately with the Judge and the parties, please so indicate.

SUMMARY OF THE CASE

This is a criminal case brought by the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York. The defendant is Sean Combs, a/k/a "Puff Daddy," a/k/a "P. Diddy," a/k/a "Diddy," a/k/a "PD," a/k/a "Love." Mr. Combs has been charged in an Indictment, alleging a number of crimes, including Racketeering or RICO Conspiracy, Sex Trafficking and Transportation to Engage in Prostitution, kidnapping, arson, obstruction of justice, bribery, drug distribution and forced labor. An Indictment is not evidence of anything.

Mr. Combs has pled not guilty to all charges. Mr. Combs is presumed innocent, and before he can be found guilty on any charge, the jury must find that the Government has proven each element of that crime beyond a reasonable doubt.

SCHEDULE

ABILITY TO SERVE

All jury service involves some degree of hardship. Our court and justice system depends on citizens doing their civic duty to serve as jurors, which involves temporarily putting aside their regular business for jury service. The Court views service on a jury to be one of the highest duties a citizen owes to the United States. Mere inconvenience or the usual financial hardship of jury service will not be sufficient to excuse a prospective juror. You must show extraordinary personal or financial hardship to be excused from service.
